Communication educated sensitivity affected affecting

Words.
Feeble attempts to tell you what I mean.

Four years Agnes Scott College college years the resulting me

Names.
Mere labels for what it means.

Yet you know what I mean.

You know what it means.

It is mine.
It is yours.
It is ours . . .

I am discovered,
touched where I never knew I was.

I am filled, altered, shaken, rearranged, drained, extended, crushed, tailored.

I am awakened to the me that is,
to the me that is filter to all that is given,
to the me that must give.

I am giver of the evolving, extending, expanding,
sensitized, humanized, educated me.

Only words.

Yet you know what I mean . . .

I am excited
by being told,
by discovering that I can —
more than hear — know,
by knowing.

The 1971 Silhouette . . . photography by Eric Lewis of Morgan Studios, Jane Causey, Bunny Folk, Janet Golden, Tyler McFadden, and Eleanor Ninestein . . . printed on Saxony Embossed paper with Helvetica type in black ink, by Hunter Publishing Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

To you who are Scott . . . this is yours.

I am grateful for the communication between Caroline and myself in regards to the theme of the 1971 Silhouette. With the patience and help of Eric Lewis of Morgan Studios, Bill Wolfe of Hunter Publishing Company, and Lucy Lewis, my (unofficial) advisor, the 1971 Silhouette has become a reality. My appreciation to Morgan Studios for having their summer workshop, and to Janet for attending. I know your appreciation, as mine, goes to Candy and Caroline and the other staff members for their hard work and time spent that made our 1971 Silhouette possible.
